

Have you considered becoming a Disability Support or Home Care Worker?

We are searching for 18 passionate individuals to start their careers in community services.

It's hard to get into jobs these days without training or experience, so this recruitment process has been designed to give you both.

No previous experience or qualifications are required!

If successful in the interview stage, selected participants will complete an entry level training program.

This way you get to see if this is the right career for you, and you get to show the employer why you would be an asset to their team.

Those who successfully complete the training program and are ready for a new adventure will join their new team as a trainee and complete the CHC33015 Certificate III in Individual Support. If you have any questions please contact our office on (02) 4961 0016.

Start your career in Community Services right here!

Recruitment Process

To be considered for this program and a position please submit your resume to; recruitment@essentialskills.com.au

One of our team will contact you to run through the program details and to determine your eligibility. Suitable applicants will be invited to attend an interview with Hunter Community Services or Eagleton Ridge.

Successful applicants will commence the training program on Tuesday 14th June 2022.

Eagleton Ridge provides personal, practical and purposeful disability support services for our community. We're proud to deliver the highest quality of individual care that makes a difference. While we go above and beyond, we're also proud to be down to earth, with inclusive home-like environments in Raymond Terrace and a farm in Eagleton.

At Hunter Community Services we have been providing home, community access and centre-based activities and supports to local people for almost 30 years. We have a dedicated team of professional support workers who provide service in the Cessnock, Maitland and Newcastle LGAs. We aim to enhance the wellbeing and quality of life of our consumers and participants and provide much needed support.

The Training Program

Selected participants will undertake an entry to care training program starting Tuesday 14th June 2022.

The program will be delivered in a classroom setting with Essential Skills Training and Recruitment to give you the entry level skills and knowledge you need to feel prepared and confident to start a career in aged care or disability.

Participants must complete the classroom training prior to Hunter Community Services and Eagleton Ridge offering employment contracts.

You will then put your new knowledge and skills into practice through supported buddy shifts with your new employer.

Upon successful completion of the program, participants will be issued with a nationally accredited Statement of Attainment for the CHCSS00114 - Entry into Care Roles Skill Set;

- HLTINF001 Comply with infection prevention and control policies and procedures
- HLTWHS002 Follow safe work practices for direct client care
- CHCCCS015 Provide individualised support

Total course commitment - 4 days classroom training and 20 hours logged buddy shifts.

On completion of the program you will then be signed up into your traineeship to complete the nationally accredited qualification - CHC33015 Certificate III in Individual Support.

The training program is funded under JobTrainer and is Fee-Free.

Training under JobTrainer is fee-free and fully funded by the NSW and Commonwealth governments.
